How To Order

We like to keep things simple here – So, here's how to start your floral journey with us!

First thing's first -

Work out your budget. This will be the first question we ask you. Work out how much you would like to put towards your flowers for your wedding day.

Don't worry too much about this – if you want several bouquets, for example, for $700, we will show you what $700 can look like for bouquets.

Having a budget organized first thing will enable us to work with you.

Brainstorm what you want

Have some ideas ready – look at Pinterest for ideas. Or, if you have none, tell us your budget and we can tell you what we think!laborate on what you want to discuss.

Deposit

We usually ask for a 10% deposit after the initial price and date is set. This gives us security to purchase the necessary equipment and flowers.

Pop by for a chat

Bring your ideas and budget along to our store on 88 Angelo Street, South Perth, and ask to speak with our wedding specialist. Or, send us an e-mail with your ideas!

Relax

We got you covered! We will be in touch with any questions and will have your flowers sorted. Meanwhile you can be rest assured our flowers will be perfect and ready for your big day!

FAQs

Tell me straight - How much do wedding flowers usually cost on average?

The average cost of wedding flowers in Australia as of 2021 is between $1500-3000.

Do you do arbors or installations?

No – but we can recommend people who do! Don't be too shy to ask.

How far in advance should I/we book?

Ideally, we would prefer a minimum of 3 months but we can – and have! – worked easily within a shorter planning timeframe. The shorter the timeframe, however, the higher the upfront cost of the deposit.

Can you help me personalise my wedding by incorporating an item that has special meaning to my partner and I?

Of course! Depending on what that item is, we can either include that special item with the flowers on your big day or design a floral styling concept based on the item.

I'm too overwhelmed by the choices I see on Pinterest and Instagram/ I can't find anything I like on social media. Can you help?

Oh boy, we feel you! We can begin by discussing what your wedding priorities are, your budget, the vibe you would like to create, your favourite colours, etc. And even if you have one or two inspiration photos on Pinterest (and it doesn't even have to be flowers), share it with us – it can point us in the right direction.

Where do you travel to for weddings?

We will deliver anywhere within the Perth metropolitan region. Delivery charges start at $14.
